

© FRASHER'S PHOTO

Mark Twain - Bret Harte Trail, Columbia State Park, California

ST. ANNE'S CHURCH

Built in 1856, still stands on its high hill overlooking the fields of limestone boulders that were left by the miners who washed all the loose dirt through the sluices and into the river. The church and cemetery remained inviolated, despite the fact that miners knew that gold in large amounts lies beneath.

*Mark Twain - Bret Harte Trail
Columbia State Park, California*

"C.T. ART-COLOR-TONE"—DISTRIBUTED BY FRASHER'S, INC., POMONA, CALIF.

POST CARD

200

PLACE
ONE CENT
STAMP
HERE

7B-H417